Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 88TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 9, 2023

TO: Honorable Morgan Meyer, Chair, House Committee on Ways & Means

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB35 by Bernal (Relating to installment payments of ad valorem taxes imposed on residence homesteads in certain counties.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend Chapter 31 of the Tax Code, relating to Collections, to permit an individual who has a residence homestead exemption for property located in a county with a population greater than 1.5 million, and where more than 70 percent reside in a single municipality, to pay property taxes on that homestead in four equal installments.

Currently, these installment plans are only available to individuals who qualify for a homestead exemption who are disabled, age 65 or older or qualified as a disabled veteran or unmarried surviving spouse of a disabled veteran under Tax Code Section 11.132 or 11.22.

The bill would only apply to property taxes collected on property located in Bexar County.

The bill would affect the timing but not the amount of property taxes paid, and the final installment would be paid in the same fiscal year required under current law except in rare cases. Consequently, the bill would not create a significant cost to the state or units of local government.
