

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 88TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 14, 2023

TO: Honorable Todd Hunter, Chair, House Committee on State Affairs

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB584 by Capriglione (Relating to the development of a state information technology credential offered by public junior colleges to address shortages in the state information resources workforce.),
As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.
--

It is assumed that any costs associated with the bill could be absorbed using existing resources. It is also assumed that any costs to develop and run a program that meets the requirements of the Department of Information Resources would be covered by tuition and other money of the public junior college district available for the purpose.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
