2028	($2,046,000)	($1,328,000)

Fiscal Analysis

The bill would amend Section 621.101 of the Transportation Code to allow certain vehicles transporting aggregates, as defined in statute, to operate at an axle weight 15 percent greater than the limit set by current law, provided that the gross weight is not heavier than 80,000 pounds.

The bill would take effect immediately upon receiving a vote of two thirds of all members elected to each house or otherwise on September 1, 2023.

Methodology

Based on the information provided by the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles (TxDMV), the bill would authorize eligible vehicles to operate at an axle weight 15 percent greater than the limit under current law without an overweight vehicle permit and would result in 23,054 fewer Over Axle/Over Gross Weight Tolerance Permits being issued beginning in fiscal year 2024. Based on the analysis provided by TxDMV and the Comptroller's office, the applicable fees for each overweight permit are as follows: (1) a $90 base fee, of which $50 is allocated to the counties and $40 is deposited to the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles Fund (TxDMV Fund); (2) a $5 administrative fee is deposited to the TxDMV Fund 0010; and (3) a variable $175-$1,000 fee (the amount of which is based on the number of counties in which the permitted vehicle will operate), of which $125-$1,000 is allocated to the counties, $0-$112.50 is deposited to the State Highway Fund, and $0-$12.50 is deposited to the TxDMV Fund.

Based on the analysis provided by TxDMV, the number of permits issued is estimated to grow by 1.5 percent each year under current law. Based on this analysis, it is assumed implementation of the bill would result in the revenue losses shown in the table above beginning in fiscal year 2024.

Local Government Impact

Based on the analysis provided by TxDMV and the Comptroller's office, it is assumed implementation of the bill would result in a loss of approximately $37.7 million to affected counties for the five-year period from fiscal year 2024 to 2028.
