

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 88TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 30, 2023

TO: Honorable Bryan Hughes, Chair, Senate Committee on State Affairs

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB12 by Hughes (relating to restricting certain sexually oriented performances on public property, on the premises of a commercial enterprise, or in the presence of a child; authorizing a civil penalty; creating a criminal offense.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would restrict certain sexually oriented performances on public property, on the premises of a commercial enterprise, or in the presence of a child.

According to the Office of Court Administration and the Office of the Attorney General, no significant fiscal implications are anticipated from the provisions of the bill.

According to the Comptroller's Office, any revenue impacts from the creation of a new misdemeanor offense and associated penalties and court costs cannot be determined.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
