IN RE: SB999 by West (Relating to the requirement that providers of active shooter training at public schools and institutions of higher education obtain a certificate issued by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

It is assumed that any costs associated with the bill could be absorbed using existing resources.

Local Government Impact

According to the Texas Education Agency, school systems would need to update current policies related to active shooter training if conducted and would need to encumber the costs associated with same.
