March 14, 2023

TO: Honorable Lois W. Kolkhorst, Chair, Senate Committee on Health & Human Services

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB1031 by Hall (Relating to studies or surveys on children's sexual behavior conducted at or by a public primary or secondary school, a public institution of higher education, a prescription drug manufacturer, a research entity, or another person; creating criminal offenses; imposing civil penalties.), As Introduced

|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated. |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|

While restricted eligibility for current and future research grants may result in the loss of some federal funding, it is assumed that any cost associated with the bill could be absorbed using existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
