2026	($763,615)
2027	($763,615)
2028	($763,615)

All Funds, Five-Year Impact:

Fiscal Year	Probable (Cost) from General Revenue Fund 1
2024	($763,615)
2025	($763,615)
2026	($763,615)
2027	($763,615)
2028	($763,615)

Fiscal Analysis

The bill would amend Chapter 403 of the Government Code, adding Section 403.0306 regarding commissioned peace officers.

The bill would require that a security officer or investigator commissioned as a peace officer by the comptroller is compensated according to Schedule C of the position classification salary schedule prescribed by the General Appropriations Act.

The bill would amend Section 661.918(a) of the Government Code to make peace officers commissioned by the Comptroller eligible for injury leave.

Methodology

Under current law, the Comptroller estimates that implementation of the bill would cost the state $763,615 per fiscal year. The Comptroller currently commissions 37 peace officers who would be reclassified as Schedule C employees. The increase in salaries for these officers would be $694,195 per fiscal year. Additionally, the 0.5 percent agency retirement contribution would be $3,471, and the 9.5 percent state contribution would be $65,949.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
