2027	($31,671,533)
2028	($51,398,154)

All Funds, Five-Year Impact:

Fiscal Year	Probable Savings/(Cost) from Foundation School Fund 193
2024	($6,074,760)
2025	($12,331,763)
2026	($18,776,476)
2027	($31,671,533)
2028	($51,398,154)

Fiscal Analysis

The bill would establish an alternative process for the commissioner to authorize adult education charter schools for eligible entities. These programs would not be held to the same authorizing provisions including authorizing timeline, charter holder quantity limit, and enrollment cap, as other adult education charter schools.

The bill would require the Texas Education Agency (TEA) to implement administrative changes and review additional applications for new adult education charter schools.

Methodology

While precise estimates of demand for the program are unknown, TEA assumes enrollment at adult high school charter schools would increase from 600 students in fiscal year 2024 to 5,077 students in fiscal year 2028, and the number of charter schools operating under the program would increase by ten during that timeframe. This analysis assumes that the agency would review four applications for new charters each year, with an approval rate of fifty percent and average enrollment of 200 students per application. Additionally, the analysis assumes an additional 200 students from ISDs annually, two new additional approved applications in each subsequent year, and a 3.0 percent growth rate for existing entities. TEA estimates costs to the Foundation School Program for these additional students to be $6,074,760 in fiscal year 2024 and $12,331,763 in fiscal year 2025, increasing to $51,398,154 in fiscal year 2028.

This analysis assumes that administrative costs to implement provisions of the bill could be absorbed by TEA using existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
