The bill would allow a newly hired or assigned department employee to initiate an investigation of abuse, neglect or exploitation of an elderly person or a person with a disability, or provide protective services only if, the employee is in the process of receiving training or is under the direct supervision of a person providing the training.

It is assumed that any costs to the Department of Family and Protective Services could be absorbed within existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
