The committee should include experts in the medical community that are backed by widely accepted national organizations. In addition, please make sure this committee includes women!

I urge Representatives to support this bill. Maternal mortal rights are rising and the more experts we have working on this issue, the better we can address and ameliorate this issue.

If you are going to use Texas money which means Texans' tax dollars, the committee should include citizens. This bill, as it stands, does not address a serious issue in medicine. We need individuals who have absolutely no ties to the pharmaceutical industry.

I support!
