I am writing today to ask for your support of House Bill 2022 and House Bill 2024 by Chairman Leach that will be heard on Wednesday, March 15, in the House Judiciary and Civil Jurisprudence Committee. These bills are top priorities for the Texas residential construction industry this session and will help our industry, but more importantly homeowners, by encouraging resolution of construction defect disputes and encouraging that written warranties be given for new homes and remodels. Frivolous litigation only benefits the plaintiff attorneys, does not help homeowners, and frustrates the goal of providing Texans with affordable housing!
