As a foster parent I fully support this bill! Kids should never have to carry their belongings in a random grocery bag or trash bag. Kids matter and so does their stuff

I support HB 3765.

I urge you to pass it out of committee.

Such a simple and easy way to add dignity to a child's life.

Respectfully,

I support HB 3765. Children in the foster system should have something personal and permanent to feel they matter. Trash bags are symbolically telling all children who have no safe place or loving family to live with that they don't matter. This is the least we can do for them while they live in an incredibly hard reality.
