Bill Avera, Chief
Texas School District Police Chiefs' Association
Jacksonville, TX

The Texas School District Police Chiefs' Association is strongly in support of this bill. There are numerous occasions when crucial investigations involving school safety are delayed due to our inability to secure search warrants. We represent the 330+ School District Police Departments all across the great State of Texas.

Mark Rowden
Highland Park I.S.D. Police Dept.
Dallas, TX

The capability to seek and obtain Serach warrants for electronic devices is extremely important in in School district law enforcement. More and more we are dealing with threats and cyberbullying that are very much threats to the safety of students faculty and staff.

Paul Cordova, Chief of Police
Aldine ISD Police Department
Houston, TX

I support this bill

Heath Wester, Police Chief
Sherman ISD Police Department
Sherman, TX

I'd like to show my support in favor of this bill.

Sandra Murray, Chief of Police
Nacogdoches ISD Police Department
Nacogdoches, TX

I am in support of HB 4906.
