Tax payers should not bail out an elected official for his abuse of power. He should not be given monetary reward for breaking the law. He should pay for his own crime to deter future and present wrongdoing. Expel Paxton

This bill would levy an additional bureaucratic layer on municipally- owned utilities like mine in San Antonio and that would increase costs for ratepayers. CPS Energy would have to do a rate hike assessment, and with enough signatures, it would then go to PUC for the same assessment - both of which would be covered by consumers. Already one in five ratepayers with CPS Energy are behind in payments. Stop driving up costs for Texans!
