5 Baker, Mary Grace Baker was born in Beaumont on April 10, 2017, and 6 she was eight years old at the time of her passing; she enjoyed an 7 extremely close bond with her younger brother, Jeb, and included 8 him in every activity; surrounded by the love of family, she spent 9 many happy hours in the company of her cousins, Molly, Will, Sonny,
10 Laurel, and Robby, who was often taken to be her twin; she adored
11 her parents and grandparents, and her favorite activities included
12 playing mahjong with her mother, going to the West End Little League
13 opening day with her father, golfing with PatPat, visiting the spa 14 with Shesha, and playing tickle monster with Popsie; she was 15 especially devoted to her grandmother Nana, who hosted countless 16 playdates and sleepovers and imparted valuable lessons of religious 17 faith; Mary Grace received her First Holy Communion at St. Jude 18 Thaddeus Catholic Church; and

19 WHEREAS, Through the years, Mary Grace attended Calder
20 Baptist nursery, Trinity Weekday Ministries, and St. Anne Catholic 21 School, where she was named "principal of the day"; magnanimous in 22 this role, she granted such favors as extra recess and free 23 popsicles; moreover, she was honored with the school's 24 St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Award for her academic excellence and for

1 demonstrating Catholic principles; open-hearted, funny, and 2 affectionate, she administered such enthusiastic hugs that 3 remaining upright could prove a challenge; she studied dance and 4 piano, played baseball and tennis, and swam, and she experienced 5 everything from skiing in Montana to hula dancing in Hawaii on 6 family trips; creative from an early age, she crafted trinkets for 7 anyone she suspected might be feeling down, and she was thrilled to 8 portray an angel in the Beaumont Civic Ballet's production of The 9 Nutcracker; and

10 WHEREAS, Although her days were far too few, the joy and 11 radiance with which Mary Grace Baker lived her life will remain a 12 lasting source of inspiration to all who were privileged to know
13 her; now, therefore, be it
