AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

At the conclusion of each biennium, the state has a number of outstanding claims and judgments against it for varying amounts of money, such as warrants voided by the statute of limitations, outstanding invoices to private vendors, unpaid charges for Medicaid recipients, or court judgment settlements.

While the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas (comptroller) is authorized to pay claims from existing appropriations, the following types of claims are required to be approved by the legislature before any payments are made:

- certain court judgments or legal settlements greater than $250,000 (Section 16.02, Article IX of the General Appropriations Act);
- claims greater than $50,000 for which there is not otherwise an appropriation (Section 403.074(d), Government Code); and
- claims older than eight years (Section 403.074(e), Government Code).

All claims for which there is not otherwise an appropriation in excess of $50,000 or older than eight years that are made during a biennium are presented in the "Miscellaneous Claims Bill" at the start of the next legislative session.

The Legislative Budget Board, with the assistance of the comptroller and the Texas Legislative Council, prepares the "miscellaneous claims bill" for the Senate Finance Committee and the House Appropriations Committee.

H.B. 4486 is this session's "miscellaneous claims bill."

After the "miscellaneous claims bill" has been approved by the legislature and signed by the governor, the comptroller begins paying claims in September of the new fiscal year.

H.B. 4486 amends current law relating to directing payment, after approval, of certain miscellaneous claims and judgments against the state out of funds designated by this Act and makes appropriations.
