AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

In 2019, the legislature adopted S.B. 548 into law which directed the Texas Ethics Commission (TEC) to either dismiss or propose a resolution for a formal complaint within a 120-day period; the only exception would be if the complaint were to proceed to litigation. The TEC, however, adopted without explicit authority what is now Rule 12.23(d), which provides the 120-day deadline is tolled (delayed) upon the issuance of a subpoena and resets "on the date the person to whom the subpoena is directed complies with the subpoena."

S.B. 869 clarifies that during an investigation of an official complaint, the TEC must either dismiss or propose a resolution within a 120-day period without tolling unless litigation is brought by the respondent or the commission regarding the complaint.

S.B. 869 amends current law relating to the deadline for the Texas Ethics Commission to resolve certain complaints.
