AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

In 2011, the Texas Legislature codified the managed assigned counsel (MAC) statute following the success of a pilot program in Lubbock County. Participating counties assign attorneys for indigent defense in criminal cases. Currently, state law allows only the judge or the MAC director to approve any payments. While the legislative intent behind having one individual making attorney fee payment decisions is a cost-effective approach for smaller counties, the size and volume of payment approvals in larger counties have created a substantial administrative burden for the directors. If the director is temporarily unavailable, attorney payments could be unreasonably delayed.

S.B. 2009 will simply allow the MAC director the option to establish a designee that would assist in approving these types of payments to attorneys, if necessary.

As proposed, S.B. 2009 amends current law relating to the compensation of counsel appointed to provide representation and services to indigent individuals in criminal and juvenile proceedings.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
