By: Guillen, et al. H.B. No. 1234

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

1	AN ACT
2	relating to certain procedures required for the denial of certain
3	applications for a license to carry a handgun.
4	BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
5	SECTION 1. Subchapter H, Chapter 411, Government Code, is
6	amended by adding Section 411.1765 to read as follows:
7	Sec. 411.1765. NOTICE OF CERTAIN DENIALS. (a) This section
8	applies only to an application for the issuance of an original or
9	renewal license to carry a handgun for which the department has
10	received an opinion from a panel member of the medical advisory
11	board under Section 12.095, Health and Safety Code, that indicates
12	the applicant may be unable to exercise sound judgment with respect
13	to the proper use and storage of a handgun.
14	(b) The department may not deny an application to which this
14 15	(b) The department may not deny an application to which this section applies, unless the department first provides the applicant
15	section applies, unless the department first provides the applicant
15 16	section applies, unless the department first provides the applicant with:
15 16 17	section applies, unless the department first provides the applicant with: (1) a written notice that specifically states the
15 16 17 18	section applies, unless the department first provides the applicant with: (1) a written notice that specifically states the reason the department is considering denying the application; and
15 16 17 18 19	section applies, unless the department first provides the applicant with: (1) a written notice that specifically states the reason the department is considering denying the application; and (2) a period of not less than 30 days in which the
15 16 17 18 19 20	section applies, unless the department first provides the applicant with: (1) a written notice that specifically states the reason the department is considering denying the application; and (2) a period of not less than 30 days in which the applicant may provide additional written materials to the
15 16 17 18 19 20 21	section applies, unless the department first provides the applicant with: (1) a written notice that specifically states the reason the department is considering denying the application; and (2) a period of not less than 30 days in which the applicant may provide additional written materials to the department to supplement or clarify the applicant's application

the period described by Subsection (b)(2) to the entire medical

24

- H.B. No. 1234
- 1 advisory board described by Subsection (a). After reviewing the
- 2 written materials, each panel member shall submit a written report
- 3 to the department stating the panel member's opinion as to the
- 4 ability of the applicant to exercise sound judgment with respect to
- 5 the proper use and storage of a handgun.
- 6 (d) After the medical advisory board panel submits the
- 7 written reports under Subsection (c), the department shall review
- 8 the application and determine whether to issue an original or
- 9 renewal license to carry a handgun or to deny the application.
- 10 SECTION 2. The changes in law made by this Act apply only to
- 11 an application for the issuance of an original or renewal license to
- 12 carry a handgun submitted on or after the effective date of this
- 13 Act. An application submitted before the effective date of this Act
- 14 is governed by the law in effect on the date the application was
- 15 submitted, and the former law is continued in effect for that
- 16 purpose.
- 17 SECTION 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 2025.