H.B. No. 3157

1	Sec. 36.1091. INTERIM RATES. (a) During a suspension
2	period ordered under Section 36.108, an electric utility may put an
3	interim rate into effect throughout the area in which the utility
4	sought to change its rates. The interim rate may not exceed the
5	proposed rate.
6	(b) An electric utility operating inside ERCOT that
7	implements an interim rate under this section must give notice to
8	each retail electric provider in the utility's service area at
9	least 45 days before the effective date of the interim rate.
10	(c) The electric utility:
11	(1) shall refund or credit against future bills money
12	collected under the interim rates in excess of the rate finally
13	ordered; and
14	(2) may surcharge bills to recover the amount by which
15	the money collected under the interim rates is less than the money
16	that would have been collected under the rate finally ordered.
17	SECTION 3. Section 36.211(b), Utilities Code, is amended to
18	read as follows:
19	(b) In a rate proceeding under Subchapter D, or if requested
20	by an electric utility in the utility's statement of intent
21	initiating a rate proceeding under Subchapter C, notwithstanding
22	Section 36.1091 [36.109(a)], the final rate set in the proceeding,
23	whether a rate increase or rate decrease, shall be made effective
24	for consumption on and after the 155th day after the date the
25	rate-filing package is filed.
26	SECTION 4. Sections 36.109 and 36.110, Utilities Code, are
27	repealed.

1 SECTION 5. The changes in law made by this Act apply only to 2 a rate proceeding initiated on or after the effective date of this 3 Act. A rate proceeding initiated before the effective date of this 4 Act is governed by the law in effect on the date the proceeding was 5 initiated, and the former law is continued in effect for that 6 purpose.

7 SECTION 6. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives 8 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 9 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 10 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 11 Act takes effect September 1, 2025.
