SECTION 2. Section 388.003, Health and Safety Code, 3 is amended by amending Subsections (a), (b), and (b-2) and adding 4 Subsections (a-1) and (a-2) to read as follows: 5

(a) To achieve energy conservation in 6 single-family 7 residential construction, the energy efficiency chapter of the 8 International Residential Code, as it existed on May 1, 2001, is adopted as the energy code in this state for single-family 9 residential construction. On September 1, 10 2016, the energy efficiency chapter of the International Residential Code, as it 11 existed on May 1, 2015, is adopted as the energy code in this state 12 for single-family residential construction. On or after September 13 14 1, 2021, the State Energy Conservation Office may adopt and 15 substitute for that energy code the latest published edition of the energy efficiency chapter of the International Residential Code, 16 17 based on written findings on the stringency of the chapter submitted by the laboratory under Subsection (b-3). The office: 18 may not amend or adopt an edition under this 19 (1)subsection more often than once every six years; [and] 20

by rule shall establish an effective date for an 21 (2) adopted edition that is not earlier than nine months after the date 22 23 of adoption; and

24

(3) may amend an adopted edition.

(a-1) Before amending or adopting an edition of the energy 25 26 efficiency chapter of the International Residential Code under Subsection (a), the State Energy Conservation Office shall conduct 27

1 an analysis that:

2 (1) measures the impact of the amendment or adoption
3 on housing attainability in this state; and

4 (2) quantifies the incremental construction cost and 5 energy use cost savings associated with construction to evaluate 6 the cost-effectiveness of the proposed amendment or adoption.

7 (a-2) The analysis under Subsection (a-1)(2) must calculate 8 the payback period for any required products or minimum standards 9 or requirements that are more stringent than the energy code in 10 effect on the date immediately before the date the amendment or 11 adoption would take effect.

12 (b) То achieve energy conservation in all other residential, commercial, and 13 industrial construction, the 14 International Energy Conservation Code as it existed on May 1, 15 2001, is adopted as the energy code for use in this state for all other residential, commercial, and industrial construction. The 16 17 State Energy Conservation Office may adopt and substitute for that energy code the latest published edition of the International 18 Energy Conservation Code, based on written findings on the 19 stringency of the edition submitted by the laboratory under 20 Subsection (b-3). The office: 21

22 (1) by rule shall establish an effective date for an 23 adopted edition that is not earlier than nine months after the date 24 of adoption; and

(2) may amend an adopted edition.

26 (b-2) The State Energy Conservation Office by rule shall27 establish a procedure for persons who have an interest in the H.B. No. 5109 amendment or adoption of energy codes under Subsection (a) or (b) to 1 an opportunity to comment the codes 2 have on under consideration. The office shall consider persons who have an 3 4 interest in adoption of those codes to include: 5 (1) commercial and residential builders, architects, 6 and engineers; 7 municipal, county, and other local government (2)
