H.C.R. No. 148

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, A vibrant southeast Texas community, Bridge City has 2 become known as a premier destination for a food that's synonymous 3 with good times and good eating: the corn dog; and

4 WHEREAS, Bridge City has a rich history of bringing people 5 together through events and festivals that foster a spirit of 6 hospitality and camaraderie; corn dogs are an especially popular 7 food at these gatherings, and attendees line up to procure the 8 sweet-and-savory treat, which is made by coating a hot dog in 9 cornmeal batter, deep-frying it, and serving it on a stick for easy 10 consumption while strolling; and

11 WHEREAS, The origin of this classic American snack food is a 12 matter of debate, but it has become a signature delicacy in Bridge 13 City; local vendors and food establishments are renowned for their 14 expertise in crafting delicious corn dogs, and they have become 15 beloved enterprises that are frequented by locals and visitors 16 alike; a number of the proprietors operate on a daily basis so that 17 enthusiasts don't have to wait for a special event to enjoy a tasty 18 dog; and

19 WHEREAS, Whether eaten with ketchup, mustard, or more exotic 20 toppings, the corn dog is an all-American favorite, and it has 21 become an iconic specialty and a source of civic pride for the 22 residents of Bridge City; now, therefore, be it
