3 opportunity to recognize the 50th anniversary of this exemplary
4 program; and

5 WHEREAS, Responding to a need for local visionary and 6 service-oriented leaders, Leadership Dallas was founded in 1975 as 7 an initiative of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, now known as the 8 Dallas Regional Chamber; over the course of 10 months, participants 9 meet at least once a month to examine topics critical to the 10 community, such as health care, public policy, economic 11 development, education, the arts, and the criminal justice system; 12 and

13 WHEREAS, Each year, the Leadership Dallas class is made up of 14 55 young businesspeople and entrepreneurs from diverse
15 backgrounds; since its inception, the program has provided training
16 in stewardship and civic responsibility to more than 2,300
17 participants, and many of these individuals have gone on to serve on 18 local boards and commissions; they also maintain connections and 19 stay up-to-date on the issues facing area residents through the 20 Leadership Dallas Alumni association; and

21 WHEREAS, For half a century, Leadership Dallas has made a 22 lasting, positive impact on its members as well as the wider
23 community, and all those associated with the program are indeed
24 deserving of special recognition for their outstanding

1 contributions; now, therefore, be it
