

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, A rich and purposeful life drew to a close with the 2   passing of Mark James Hanna of Austin on May 23, 2025, at the age of 3   77; and

4           WHEREAS, Born on Walker Air Force Base in Roswell, New 5   Mexico, on September 24, 1947, Mark Hanna was the son of Colonel
6   Keith C. Hanna and Bettye Bennett Hanna; he grew up with a sister, 7   Jill, and lived in a number of states before his father's career
8   brought the family to Austin; after graduating from Austin High 9   School, where he formed many lasting friendships, he earned his 10   bachelor's and law degrees from The University of Texas at Austin;
11   answering his nation's call to duty, he served as an airborne combat 12   medic in the U.S. Army; and

13          WHEREAS, Mr. Hanna focused his distinguished legal career on 14   public policy; he advocated fiercely and successfully for 15   legislation that advanced such fields as real estate, dentistry,
16   surveying, speech therapy, and audiology, benefiting his clients
17   and their patients alike; for nearly three decades, he represented 18   the Texas Nurses Association, furthering their goals of reducing 19   the nursing shortage and improving practice conditions while 20   helping establish a legal framework on which the Legislature
21   continues to build; a zealous advocate and true statesman, he made 22   friends on both sides of the aisle; he avoided controversy whenever 23   possible, choosing to negotiate a win-win solution for all; always 24   impeccably attired with every hair in place as he roamed the Capitol

1 halls and committee meetings, he was renowned for his warm smile and 2 his calm and professional demeanor that was flavored with a dash of 3 humor and subtle sarcasm; he was always viewed with the highest 4 respect by the individuals he worked with and the organizations he 5 represented; in turn, he loved the camaraderie that brought worthy 6 adversaries together after long days and nights of legislative 7 work, and he relished his memories of boisterous sine die 8 celebrations; and

9 WHEREAS, In 1980, Mr. Hanna married the former Deborah 10 Shelton, and they became the parents of a son, Mark Hanna Jr.; he 11 was also the father of Todd and Trent Hanna, and he eventually knew 12 the joy of welcoming a granddaughter, Catherine, into his treasured
13 family; an Eagle Scout and avid outdoorsman, he enjoyed horseback 14 riding, hiking, boating, fishing, duck hunting, and most of all, 15 working his beloved yellow British labs, Ace, Jock, and Rip, at 16 Aransas Bay; he drove a ski boat skillfully, to the delight of the 17 numerous children he pulled on boards, tubes, and skis, up and down 18 Lake Austin; a loyal Longhorn, he was an especially ardent fan of 19 the football team; and

20 WHEREAS, Thoughtful, kind, and gentlemanly, Mark Hanna
21 brightened the world for innumerable people, and they will forever
22 hold him close in their hearts; now, therefore, be it

23 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 89th Texas
24 Legislature hereby pay tribute to the life of Mark James Hanna and 25 extend sincere condolences to the members of his family: to his 26 wife, Debbie Hanna; to his sons, Mark Hanna Jr., Todd Hanna, and 27 Trent Hanna; to his granddaughter, Catherine Quail Hanna; to his
