

By: Hall

S.B. No. 96

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to vaccine administration requirements and protection of immunization exemptions for health reasons.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Subchapter A, Chapter 161, Health and Safety Code, is amended by adding Sections 161.0035 and 161.0045 to read as follows:

Sec. 161.0035. VACCINATION ADMINISTRATION REQUIREMENTS.

(a) A person administering a vaccine to a patient shall:

(1) before administering the vaccine, provide to the patient written information on the vaccine's benefits and risks, including any vaccine information statement required by the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986 (42 U.S.C. Section 300aa-1 et seq.);

(2) for each vaccine the person administers, maintain a permanent record of the vaccine manufacturer and lot number;

(3) record each serious health problem, including hospitalization, injury, or death, a patient sustains following the administration of the vaccine and place that information in the patient's record;

(4) report to the federal Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System any serious health problem, including hospitalization, injury, or death, a patient sustains following the administration of the vaccine; and

1 (5) for each vaccine administered, provide to the
2 patient the Vaccine Excipient Summary published by the Centers for 3 Disease Control and Prevention.

4 (b) Reporting an adverse event associated with the 5 administration of a vaccine to the vaccine manufacturer does not
6 satisfy the requirements of Subsection (a)(4).

7 (c) A person who violates this section and holds a license
8 or other certification issued by this state that authorizes the 9 person to administer a vaccine is subject to disciplinary action by 10 the appropriate licensing or certifying authority as if the person
11 violated the applicable licensing or certification law.

12 (d) A person may bring a civil action to enjoin a violation
13 of this section against a person who violates this section and who
14 is not subject to disciplinary action under Subsection (c). A
15 claimant who prevails in the action may recover attorney's fees and
16 costs associated with bringing the action.

17 Sec. 161.0045. IMMUNIZATION HEALTH EXEMPTION PROTECTIONS.

18 (a) In this section:

19 (1) "Health care practitioner" means a person who is 20 licensed, certified, or otherwise authorized by the laws of this 21 state to provide or render health care in the ordinary course of 22 business or practice of a profession.

23 (2) "Health exemption" means an affidavit or 24 certificate a health care practitioner signs stating that, in the 25 practitioner's opinion, an immunization poses a significant risk to 26 the health and well-being of the practitioner's patient.

27 (b) A governmental official, including an official for a

1 licensing or certification authority, may not question or sanction
2 a health care practitioner for granting a health exemption to the 3 practitioner's patient.

4 (c) Notwithstanding any other law, a person, including a
5 state public health official, child-care facility, school,
6 institution of higher education, public or private employer, and 7 medical service or long-term care provider, shall:

8 (1) accept a health exemption:

9 (A) provided by a health care practitioner; and

10 (B) filed by an individual on behalf of the 11 individual or the individual's minor child for education,
12 employment, medical or long-term care, or another activity
13 necessary for the individual's quality of life; and

14 (2) exempt the individual described by the health
15 exemption from an immunization requirement imposed by the person or 16 under the laws of this state.

17 (d) A person who violates Subsection (c) and holds a license
18 or other certification issued by this state is subject to 19 disciplinary action by the appropriate licensing or certifying
20 authority as if the person violated the applicable licensing or 21 certification law.

22 (e) A person may bring a civil action to enjoin a violation
23 of this section against a person who violates this section and who
24 is not subject to disciplinary action under Subsection (d). A
25 claimant who prevails in the action may recover attorney's fees and
26 costs associated with bringing the action.

27 SECTION 2. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives

S.B. No. 96

1 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as
2 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this
3 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this
4 Act takes effect September 1, 2025.