CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, Cowboys, horses, and ranching are cultural icons
2 that have helped define the identity of the Lone Star State, and 3 they have played an essential role in the development and 4 prosperity of Bandera throughout the city's history; and

5 WHEREAS, Located in the Hill Country northwest of San 6 Antonio, Bandera was founded in the early 1850s, when the area was 7 part of the Texas frontier, and in its early years, the town
8 benefited from the presence of U.S. Cavalry troops stationed nearby 9 at Camp Verde; when the era of the great cattle drives dawned in the 10 decades after the Civil War, Bandera became a staging point for 11 drives up the Western Trail; with plentiful water and grass for the 12 herds, the town was an ideal departure point for the drives, and 13 during the 1870s and 1880s, residents witnessed the majestic sight
14 of cowboys herding several thousand longhorns northward, beginning 15 a long journey to destinations in Kansas and beyond; and

16 WHEREAS, The legacy of those epic trail drives has remained a 17 touchstone for area residents ever since, and today, Bandera's ties
18 to its Western roots remain strong; the city is a hub for modern-day 19 ranchers and cowpokes, who not only raise livestock but also 20 operate guest ranches and horseback riding businesses to serve the 21 legions of visitors seeking to experience cowboy culture firsthand;
22 in addition, the city hosts rodeo competitions throughout the year,
23 and Bandera is renowned for its skilled riders, having produced a 24 host of state, national, and world champions in the sport; and

1 WHEREAS, A number of Western-themed annual events take place
2 in the city, including Cowboy Mardi Gras, the National Day of the 3 American Cowboy festivities in July, and the Bandera Round-Up
4 Celebration, a Labor Day weekend festival that includes live music,
5 gunfighter reenactments, and a longhorn cattle drive and parade;
6 year-round, visitors can appreciate the town's vintage
7 architecture, learn more about local history at the Frontier Times 8 Museum, and go two-stepping at one of the city's honky-tonks; and

9 WHEREAS, By retaining a vibrant connection with its storied 10 past, Bandera has long been known as the Cowboy Capital of the 11 World, and it is indeed fitting that the city be officially accorded 12 this same title for the State of Texas; now, therefore, be it

13 RESOLVED, That the 89th Legislature of the State of Texas
14 hereby designate Bandera as the official Cowboy Capital of Texas;
15 and, be it further

16 RESOLVED, That, in accordance with the provisions of Section
17 391.003\(e\), Government Code, this designation remain in effect 18 until the 10th anniversary of the date this resolution is finally 19 passed by the legislature.
