R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, The Associated General Contractors of Texas
2 Highway, Heavy, Utilities, and Industrial Branch, a trade group
3 serving businesses in the infrastructure construction industry,
4 marked the 100th anniversary of its founding on December 11, 2024;
5 and

6 WHEREAS, In November 1924, a group of Texas contractors met 7 at the St. Anthony Hotel in San Antonio to begin developing the 8 framework for an organization committed to advocating in behalf of 9 general contractors and meeting the state's growing public 10 infrastructure needs; on December 11 of that year, a charter for the 11 group was granted by the Associated General Contractors of America, 12 ushering in a new era of growth and success for the highway and 13 heavy construction industry in Texas; and

14 WHEREAS, The more than 700 companies affiliated with the AGC
15 of Texas are responsible for over 90 percent of all highway
16 construction in the state and a considerable share of other 17 engineering projects, including water and sewer systems and utility 18 plants; throughout its existence, the organization has tirelessly 19 advocated for the funding of the state highway system, promoted 20 workplace safety, and championed the core values of skill, 21 integrity, and responsibility among contractors, suppliers, and 22 industry professionals doing business in Texas; under the able 23 leadership of chief executive officer Jennifer Woodard, the group
24 strives to be a driving force in shaping the future of public

1 infrastructure in Texas, contributing to the continued economic 2 vitality of the state; and

3 WHEREAS, Thanks to the dedication of its engaged membership,
4 the Associated General Contractors of Texas continues to flourish
5 as one of the longest-standing trade groups in the Lone Star State,
6 and it is a privilege to honor the organization as it commemorates a 7 century of excellence; now, therefore, be it

8 RESOLVED, That the Senate of the 89th Texas Legislature
9 hereby commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Associated General
10 Contractors of Texas Highway, Heavy, Utilities, and Industrial 11 Branch and extend to all those affiliated with the organization
12 sincere best wishes for continued success; and, be it further

13 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 14 prepared for the group as an expression of high regard by the Texas
15 Senate.
