

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 99

WHEREAS, Members of the Texas Chapter of the American College of Physicians are gathering in Austin on February 19, 2025, for the organization's Advocacy Leadership Day at the State Capitol; and

WHEREAS, Dedicated to promoting quality health care for all Texans, TXACP works to advance the field of internal medicine through advocacy, education, and initiatives aimed at enhancing patient care and medical standards in Texas; the organization represents more than 8,000 physicians, residents, medical students, and affiliate members and comprises two regions with representative leadership throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, TXACP Services supports and improves the practice of internal medicine by addressing the scientific, economic, social, and political aspects of medicine to maintain the highest standards of patient care; and

WHEREAS, The TXACP Foundation fosters knowledge and philanthropy that enhances health care in Texas by promoting initiatives such as the General Internal Medicine Statewide Preceptorship Program, which encourages students to enter the field of internal medicine and supports residents in educational and scientific endeavors; and

WHEREAS, The Texas Chapter of the American College of Physicians has rendered exceptional service to internal medicine professionals across the state, and the organization's Advocacy Leadership Day provides an important opportunity to connect with fellow medical professionals, to learn about current legislative issues impacting the field, and to engage with lawmakers about key health care policies; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 89th Legislature, hereby recognize February 19, 2025, as the Texas Chapter of the American College of Physicians Advocacy Leadership Day at the State Capitol and extend a warm welcome to the visiting delegation; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this Resolution be prepared for TXACP as an expression of high regard from the Texas Senate.

Schwertner
