

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 89TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 7, 2025

TO: Honorable Morgan Meyer, Chair, House Committee on Ways & Means

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB195 by Plesa (Relating to the dissemination of certain school district ad valorem tax-related information.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would require a county assessor-collector to post on the county's website certain information regarding the maintenance and operates (M&O) property taxes for each recapture school district in the county, and certain information regarding the M&O revenue for each non-recapture district in the county. The bill would also require the county assessor-collector to include with a resident's tax bill a statement that certain tax information for each recapture school district and each non-recapture school district in the county could be accessed at the county's website and provide the URL for that site.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
