Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 89TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 25, 2025

TO: Honorable Lacey Hull, Chair, House Committee on Human Services

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1403 by Harris (Relating to the collection and confidentiality of information regarding weapons in agency foster homes; creating a civil penalty.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would prohibit the Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS), Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) and child-placing agencies from requiring foster homes to disclose the specific types of weapons, including firearms, present in the home. Additionally, the bill would restrict the use of any obtained information solely to determine the presence of weapons. Lastly, the bill would add a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $5,000 for each violation by a child-placing agency and allow the attorney general to bring an action to cover the civil penalty.

Based on information from the Comptroller of Public Accounts, revenue from the civil penalty cannot be determined.

It is assumed any costs to DFPS, HHSC, the Office of Attorney General, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts could be absorbed within existing appropriations.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
