

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 89TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 1, 2025

TO: Honorable John T. Smithee, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1789 by Gerdes (Relating to enhancing the criminal penalty for the offense of intoxication manslaughter in certain circumstances.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would enhance the penalty from a second-degree to a first-degree felony for intoxication manslaughter, if it is shown at trial that the actor caused the death of more than one person during the offense.

It is assumed that any impact on state correctional populations or on the demand for state correctional resources would not be significant.

Local Government Impact

It is assumed that any fiscal impact to units of local government associated with enforcement, prosecution, supervision, or confinement would not be significant.
