The bill would allow a parent, a non-parent, a licensed child placing agency, or the Department of Family and Protective Services appointed as sole managing conservator of the child, the right to designate the school the child will attend and to enroll the child in the school, subject to any eligibility or admissions requirement.

It is assumed any costs to the Department of Family and Protective Services, the Office of Court Administration, and the Texas Education Agency could be absorbed within existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
