Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 89TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 14, 2025

TO: Honorable Morgan Meyer, Chair, House Committee on Ways & Means

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HJR99 by Harris (Proposing a constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation tangible personal property consisting of animal feed held by the owner of the property for sale at retail.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated, other than the cost of publication.

The cost to the state for publication of the resolution is $191,689.

The resolution would propose an amendment to Article VIII of the Texas Constitution to allow the Legislature by general law to exempt animal feed, held by the owner for sale at retail, from ad valorem taxation. The Legislature would be permitted to impose additional eligibility requirements.

The proposed constitutional amendment would permit, but not require, the Legislature to exempt animal feed held for retail sale from property tax. Consequently, any cost would be shown in the fiscal note for the associated implementing legislation (HB 1399).

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
