

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 89TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 22, 2025

TO: Honorable Charles Schwertner, Chair, Senate Committee on Business & Commerce

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB1259 by Nichols (Relating to the regulation of land surveyors by the Texas Board of Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The Texas Board of Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors is a self-directed, semi-independent agency that is responsible for its costs of operations, prohibited from causing the General Revenue Fund to incur any cost, and not subject to the legislative budgeting process.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

Source Agencies: 460 Board of Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors

LBB Staff: JMc, RStu, GDZ, JBel