FISCAL NOTE, 89TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 11, 2025

TO: Honorable Paul Bettencourt, Chair, Senate Committee on Local Government

FROM: Jerry McGinty, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB2172 by Parker (Relating to the authority of the chief appraiser of an appraisal district to require a person allowed an exemption from ad valorem taxation of a residence homestead to file a new application or confirm the person's current qualification for the exemption.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would prohibit a chief appraiser from requiring a person with a homestead exemption to file a new application or confirm the person's current qualification for the exemption unless the chief appraiser 1) has reason to believe the person no longer qualifies for the exemption; and 2) delivers written notice, accompanied by an appropriate application form, to the person stating chief appraiser believes the person may no longer qualify for the exemption and the specific reason for the chief appraiser's belief.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
