We are complete support of this bill and feel that Rockwall County deserves this title. After more than 90 years from the last time Rockwall had this title. It would be such a wonderful thing to be able to have this title again almost a century later.

As a proud resident of Rockwall County, I wholeheartedly support SCR 6 to designate our county as the official Marriage Capital of Texas through 2035. Rockwall's vibrant community spirit, family-centered values, and stunning lakeside venues make it a natural choice to celebrate love and commitment.

This designation would honor the many couples who begin their lifelong journeys here—like my husband and me—and recognize Rockwall as a shining example of what strong, lasting marriages can mean for the future of our state. Please support SCR 6 and help us share our joy with all of Texas.
