H.C.R. No. 84

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1           WHEREAS, The development of the city of Pineland has been 2 profoundly shaped by its lumber industry, which has formed the 3 basis of the community's economy since its founding at the turn of 4 the 20th century; and

5           WHEREAS, Located in southwestern Sabine County, Pineland
6 traces its origins to a sawmill and lumber camp that was established
7 on the Gulf, Beaumont and Great Northern Railway, which laid tracks
8 through the county in 1902; originally known as John Adam's Mill,
9 the community acquired its Pineland name when a post office opened 10 in 1904; and

11           WHEREAS, Nestled in the heart of the East Texas forests, 12 Pineland grew rapidly as a company town centered around the Temple
13 Lumber Company, which was established in 1910 when Thomas L. L.
14 Temple took control of a previously existing mill operation;
15 through the decades, the company's products included hardwood,
16 plywood, pine lumber, particleboard, and hardwood flooring, and a 17 number of new processing facilities were added beginning in the 18 1960s; and

19           WHEREAS, The company became Temple Industries in 1963, and 20 additional name changes took place over the next two decades due to 21 a series of acquisitions and mergers; since 2013, Georgia-Pacific 22 has operated the mill, and when a $120 million expansion of the 23 Pineland Lumber Complex was completed in 2023, it became the 24 largest sawmill in the southern United States; and

1       WHEREAS, Drawing on the region's vast timber resources,
2 Pineland has played an integral role in the state's lumber industry
3 for more than a century, and the city's residents are justifiably
4 proud of their community's contributions to the Texas economy; now,
5 therefore, be it

6       RESOLVED, That the 89th Legislature of the State of Texas
7 hereby designate Pineland as the official Lumber Capital of Texas;
8 and, be it further

9       RESOLVED, That, in accordance with the provisions of Section
10 391.003(e), Government Code, this designation remain in effect 11 until the 10th anniversary of the date this resolution is finally 12 passed by the legislature.
