By: Vasut H.C.R. No. 15

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Vaibhav Duggal tragically passed away on July 29, 2025, at the age of 24, and memories of this caring and intelligent young man will forever endure in the hearts of those who knew and loved him; and

WHEREAS, Born on July 23, 2001, Vaibhav Duggal was the beloved son of Vivek and Neeru Duggal; remembered for his humility, kindness, and compassion, he set his sights on becoming a physician at a young age and pursued that goal with remarkable discipline and determination; he was an avid reader who was gifted in science and mathematics, and he consistently earned outstanding grades throughout his years in school; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Duggal attended Texas A&M University on scholarship and majored in biology with a concentration in neuroscience, graduating summa cum laude in 2022 with a perfect 4.0 grade point average; while at Texas A&M, he participated in neuroscience research and volunteered at Baylor Scott & White Medical Center to gain valuable firsthand experience in patient care; he also furthered his medical training by completing clinical rotations in Pearland, participating in medical camps, and volunteering his time at Houston Methodist Hospital; and

WHEREAS, At the time of his death, Mr. Duggal was a third-year medical student at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso; during his time in the program, he diligently prepared himself for the career he had long envisioned, and he looked forward to making a positive difference in the lives of others through medicine; and

WHEREAS, While the passing of Vaibhav Duggal is a heartbreaking loss to numerous people, the passage of time will never dim their memories of the love and friendship he shared with them and the passion and purpose with which he followed his dreams; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 90th Legislature of the State of Texas hereby pay tribute to the life of Vaibhav Duggal and extend profound sympathy to all those who mourn his passing; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be prepared for his family and that when the Texas House of Representatives and Senate adjourn this day, they do so in memory of Vaibhav Duggal.